BOOKS FOR ALL AGES

The Stone of Sorrow Runecaster #1

RRP: $24.95

Author: Brooke Carter | Release date: 01/06/20

Publisher: Orca Books | Format: PB | Pages: 304

Size: 28.4 x 19.6 cm

ISBN: 9781459824393

DESCRIPTION: In a land of myth and ice, 17-year-old Runa Unnursdóttir is not the runecaster her clan has been hoping for. She spends her days daydreaming of sailing away and exploring the world instead of studying the runes and learning her spells. The villagers consider her odd, in looks and in manner. She's nothing like her talented sister, Sýr, keeper of the sacred moonstone that ensures the village's continued survival. But when a rival clan led by an evil witch raids the village and kidnaps her sister, Runa is forced to act. With a fallen Valkyrie by her side, and the help of a gorgeous half-elf Runa is not quite sure she can trust, the apprentice must travel to the site of an ancient runecasting competition to try to win back the magical gem. But the journey will not be easy; the three unlikely companions encounter malevolent and supernatural creatures at every turn. Somehow, Runa must summon the courage and strength to face her destiny, a destiny she never wanted. Or die trying.

Beautiful Shades of Brown: The Art of Laura Wheeler Waring

ISBN: 9781939547651

RRP: $34.95

Author: Nancy Churnin, Illustrated by Felicia Marshall | Publisher: Creston |
Release Date: 01/06/20 | Format: Hardback | Pages: 32 | Trim: 20.32 x 25.4 cm

DESCRIPTION: Growing up in the late 19th century, Laura Wheeler Waring didn't see any artists who looked like her. She didn't see any paintings of people who looked like her, either. As a young woman studying art in Paris, she found inspiration in the works of Matisse and Gauguin to paint the people she knew best.

Back in Philadelphia, the Harmon Foundation commissioned her to paint portraits of accomplished African-Americans. Her portraits still hang in Washington DC's National Portrait Gallery, where children of all races can admire the beautiful shades of brown she captured.

Pride: The Celebration and the Struggle

Updated edition

ISBN: 9781459821248

RRP: $42.95

Author: Robin Stevenson | Publisher: Orca Book Publishers | Release Date: 01/06/20 | Format: Paperback | Pages: 168 | Size: 19.05 x 22.86 cm

This new edition celebrates the LGBTQ+ community's diversity and the incredible victories of the past 50 years—but it also has a larger focus on activism, the need to keep fighting for equality and freedom around the world and the important role that young people are playing. It includes many new Proud Moments and Queer Facts as well as a profile of LGBTQ+ refugees from Indonesia, a story about a Pride celebration in a refugee camp in Kenya and profiles of young activists, including teens from a Gender and Sexuality Alliance organizing Pride in Inuvik and a trans girl from Vancouver fighting for inclusion and support in schools. There is also a section on being an ally, a profile of a family with two gay dads (one of them trans) and much, much more!

School Library Journal, starred review:

"An indispensable and celebratory primer on the ongoing fight for LGBTQ+ rights. An excellent resource that is as thorough as it is visually appealing."

DESCRIPTION: Jeff Diamond built a life of influence and wealth by making choices for all the right reasons. He lived by the law of reciprocity; a lesson learned on the streets as a teenager with nothing but an unquenchable thirst for knowledge. Plagued by the scars of a violent childhood, he created his vision and fought for it. And once he no longer needed to fight for himself, he fought for others. Yet when Jeff's dream girl, Lynn, is taken from him by the act of a jealous misfit from his home town, the billionaire realises why he had succeeded while so many others like him were destined to fail. The secret, he discovers, lay in the relentless pursuit of love and wisdom; life's two magic ingredients. Lynn was gone; his remaining days now only to account for their life together and inspire young people to make his type of choices, not those of the desperate misfit named García. Part One of Volume One - an amazing journey through life's experiences in this fourteen-part series of love, passion and hope...
