DESCRIPTION: As Princess Vashta of the Vendel finishes her combat training, she hopes she will lead their forces into battle against her race's deadly enemy, the Verindal. But when Brandonin, the heir to the Verindal throne, comes to see her father, it's clear he desires peace, not war. When a new enemy arises, striking at all who call their planet home, each race blames the other, even though the princess is sure this danger comes from somewhere new. She seeks Brandonin's help in fighting this menace, but what can they do when both Vendel and Verindal refuse to work together? Can they defeat this deadly threat themselves or will it mean the end of life on Verindon? An exciting new novel set in the world of the Verindon Trilogy.

ISBN: 9781459825628

DESCRIPTION: Stella Connors has spent her whole life bouncing around from one town to the next, following the latest musician her mother has fallen in love with. She has always vowed she will never become a pathetic groupie like her mother, Viv. But then her best friend uploads a video of Stella singing a cover of her favorite band's biggest hit. It goes viral, and suddenly Stella's ideas about who she is and what she wants take a real hit. As a publicity stunt, the band's manager asks Stella to perform with them when they come to town. Stella is thrilled and agrees immediately. Soon she finds herself in the spotlight, with everyone after her for interviews and photo ops. And unless she's reading things wrong, she's pretty sure the band's lead singer has a thing for her. When she gets invited to go on the road with the band and perform in another concert, Stella forgets every bad thing she ever thought about being a groupie. After all, she's nothing like her mother. She's a star. Isn't she?

But now that he has been released, Rob hopes that things can go back to the way they used to be. He soon realizes this is impossible. His brother has changed, the times have changed, and Rob has changed. Adam tells his mother and brother that he is planning to apply to a college in Toronto. He has already discovered how difficult it can be for someone with a criminal record to land a job and thinks he needs to get some education under his belt. He invites Rob to go on a road trip to the city to check out the college. However, Rob suspects that Adam hasn't asked him along just for company. Adam still believes that there's an easy way to get to where he wants to be. And if Rob can't find away to save Adam from himself, he just might go down with him.

DESCRIPTION: Mark is a city kid who has come to a small town to live with his grandmother after his mom goes into rehab. He has to take a school bus home for the first time. The long, noisy ride home is nothing like riding city transit. There's some kind of secret code of where you're allowed to sit, the kids scream non-stop, and there's pudding and cheese flying through the air. Someone even tries to set Mark's seat on fire. Mark quickly decides that all these kids are nuts and does his best to avoid interacting with any of them. But when the bus is involved in a serious accident, Mark has to work with a couple of other students to get everybody to safety. He soon learns that he has more in common with these rural kids than he would ever have imagined. In turns funny and heartbreaking, The Ride Home is about learning that not everything is as it seems and that everyone has a story.

DESCRIPTION: Fourteen-year-old Dylan is sent to live with his estranged grandfather, Angus. Basically strangers, the two avoid each other as best they can. Dylan explores the island by himself, while his grandfather, a well-known artist, spends his day locked up in his studio. One day Dylan discovers a young orca stranded high up on the rocky beach. Dylan runs to tell his grandfather. 'There's nothing that can be done', says Angus. The sun is coming up, and soon the orca will die of exposure. But Dylan knows he has to try to save the whale. He collects towels to cover the delicate skin of the orca and begins transporting buckets of water from the ocean below to keep it hydrated. It's grueling work, and it will be hours before the tide comes back in and the water is high enough for the orca to swim free. Angus is moved by his grandson's determination and helps as best he can. They both desperately hope that soon the orca will be able to join its family, who have been calling out to it just offshore. On the Rocks is an inspiring story about the ups and downs of family and the passionate desire to make a difference in the world.

DESCRIPTION: Who was the first person recorded as praising God? Who was the first to give Him a name? Who was the first to announce the coming of God's Messiah? Who was Paul's mentor and coach? Who financed Jesus' ministry? And who anointed Him king? Scripture makes no secret of the fact the kingmakers, culture-changers, pioneers, visionaries, bridge-builders, navigators, watchers, sentinels, cupbearers, mentors, coaches and God-namers were so often women. The virtuous woman described in Proverbs 31 is also a woman of valour. This sequel to the best-selling More Precious Than Pearls continues to highlight the underrated role of women in Scripture and includes a Study Guide.

Hearing the Way

What the First Christians Heard in the Story of Jesus

ISBN: 9781925044966

RRP: $19.95

Author: Kayle B de Waal | Publisher: Signs Publishing

Release Date: 01/04/2020 | Format: Paperback | Pages: 144 | Size: 15.0 x 22.9 cm

DESCRIPTION: The Exodus was a dominant and defining story in the Jewish nation, life and faith—and it became one of the foundational ways in which His first followers understood Jesus and, in turn, how the New Testament writers explained who Jesus was and what He did. So this story also becomes a key for our understanding of Jesus, the early church and the New Testament, and for what it means for us to follow Jesus today. Each chapter includes “Growing Hearing Communities” questions for reading and sharing in small groups or for personal reflection.

“Kayle de Waal makes a persuasive case for the importance of understanding the motif of the ‘way’ in the New Testament on the basis of strong connections with the Old Testament, urging Jesus as the final, superior, and climactic Way to be admired and followed.”—Jiří Moskala, Dean, Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, Professor of Old Testament Exegesis and Theology

Dr Kayle de Waal is head of the Avondale Seminary and senior lecturer in New Testament at Avondale College of Higher Education in Cooranbong, Australia. Kayle has also served the church in South Africa, South Korea and New Zealand.

Following the Apostles' Vision

for Disciple-making, Church-Planting Movements

ISBN: 9781925044980

RRP: $19.95

Author: Peter Roennfeldt | Publisher: Signs Publishing

Release Date: 01/04/2020 | Format: Paperback | Pages: 256 | Size: 15.0 x 22.9 cm

DESCRIPTION: From small and unlikely beginnings in Jerusalem, the message of Jesus seemed to explode across the Roman world within only a few decades. It was powered by the Holy Spirit and the passion of those first men and women who had spent time with Jesus, but this remarkable success also came with self-sacrificing determination, hard work and innovative mission strategies.

Re-reading the pastoral letters of Paul—written to the respective churches within the first 10 years of their planting—offers valuable insights into the focus, energy and methods of Paul and his ministry teams. And it must challenge our vision and practice of church, ministry and mission today.

“Every now and then a book comes along that speaks with clarity and breaks new ground. This is such a book—a fresh look at Acts and Paul’s letters, examining how the apostles planted such mature churches so quickly and successfully. Expect your paradigms to be challenged. This vital biblical reflection will reverberate for a long time, as required reading for all disciple-makers and movement-leaders who want to look beyond traditional assumptions...”—Dave Lawton, Praxeis—Making Disciples, Melbourne, Australia

Peter Roennfeldt (DMin) has spent his life sharing the gospel, planting churches, and serving as a pastor to pastors. Having lived in four countries and equipped church-planting teams in almost 60, Peter now lives in Melbourne, Australia, with his wife Judy, but travels widely equipping and coaching disciple-makers, church-planters, pastors and movement-leaders.

FULL STEAM AHEAD!

Full STEAM Ahead! is an innovative literacy series for early readers that provides an introduction to STEAM subjects.

Expertly leveled text combines with bold images to engage young readers. Key concepts are explained using relatable examples, allowing children to build comprehension and fluency skills as they build their knowledge of STEAM topics. An inquiry-based activity in each book helps children understand how STEAM subjects overlap, and encourages creative problem solving, perseverance, collaboration, and other essential skills. Educator support features are provided in each book, including high-frequency and academic word lists and question prompts to build critical thinking and comprehension skills. The books are useful as read-alouds in Early Learning and Kindergarten, and for individual or group instruction in grades one and two.

A free teacher's guide is available for download from Crabtree Publishing's website. In addition, supplemental digital content and activities that reinforce and extend key series concepts are available on the Crabtree Plus website through a link printed inside each book.

Natural Disasters: Meeting the Challenge

RRP: $16.95 ea | Author: Various

Publisher: Crabtree Publishing Company | Release Date: 01/04/2020

Format: Paperback | Pages: 48 | Size: 20.32 x 25.4 cm

DESCRIPTION: Natural events such as tornadoes and earthquakes create a hazard that only becomes a disaster when it impacts humans. We cannot control these hazards but we can learn from them when they happen to help minimize the impact of future disasters. This important series looks at the scientific study of natural disasters—what causes each phenomenon, the technology used to predict these events, the strategies in place to respond to these emergencies, and how we learn to improve our readiness for the future. Case studies help show how scientists and engineers have come up with innovative technologies and safer city and building designs by studying the destruction of past events, as well as by sharing their findings with colleagues around the world. Brief bios feature key scientists and organizations. Free downloadable Teacher's Guide.

On Our Nature Walk: Our First Talk about Our Impact on the Environment

(The World Around Us)

ISBN: 9781459821002

RRP: $34.95

Author: Jillian Roberts, Illustrated by Jane Heinrichs

Publisher: Orca Book Publishers | Release Date: 01/05/2020

Format: Hardback | Pages: 32 | Size: 21.59 x 25.4 cm

DESCRIPTION: This illustrated nonfiction picture book by child psychologist Dr. Jillian Roberts introduces children to the timely topic of the environment. Crafted around a conversation between a grade-school-aged child and an adult, this inquiry-focused book using age-appropriate language and tone will help children shape their understanding of the natural world and how they participate in protecting it. Dr. Roberts starts the discussion with types of pollution and trash that children might notice on a nature walk or a trip to the beach, how they are caused and how to work to improve things in their own lives and communities.
