

Juno Jones

Word Ninja

BY KATE GORDON WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY SANDY FLETT

A DISASTER HAS HAPPENED!
Muttonbird Bay School might be closing.
I mean, FOREVER.

ABOUT THE BOOK

How far would you go to save your school from Men in Suits a.k.a. Alien Lizard Men? Juno Jones and her friends will do anything. Teacher Miss Tippet has a plan, but it involves a LOT of reading. Juno Jones, a Kid Who Doesn't Like Reading, must become... A WORD NINJA! Complete with jokes and drawings and killer mermaids, and of course ninjas, Juno's adventures in text will appeal to even the pickiest of young readers.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kate Gordon is an award-winning Tasmanian author. Prior to becoming a writer she worked as a children's librarian and bookseller. She has written five young adult novels. Juno Jones, Word Ninja is the first in a new series for younger readers.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Sandy Flett is a creator of cartoons, illustrations, commissioned artworks and portraits. She is also has an internationally successful YouTube channel, 'Kids Art School'.

Publication date: 30 April 2019

Author: Kate Gordon

Illustrator: Sandy Flett

ISBN: 978-09945570-9-4

RRP: $12.99

Format: Paperback
92 pages

KEY POINTS

- First book in a funny, engaging new series. Book 2 coming late 2019.
- Quirky, adventurous female protagonist with great comedic timing
- Celebrates the wonders of books and reading
- Juno is a reluctant reader who develops her own interest in books by writing this one!

Media Enquiries:
Angela Smith

T 07 3088 4382

E angela@yellowbrickbooks.com.au

yellowbrickbooks.com.au

