Release Date: 01/03/2020 | Format: Paperback | Pages: 300 | Size: 14.0 x 21.6 cm

DESCRIPTION: London, the 1860s. Steam technology has advanced tremendously since the invention of the caloric converter, a device that can extract heat from coal and store it in liquid form. Gladys Dunchurch is a clever, cantankerous Australian music hall performer who has sought her fortune on the London stage, only to find herself working for Gruffydd Pritchard, a drunken and unsuccessful stage magician. Gruffydd has one great advantage as a magician – a wand that can teleport people across short distances. When Gruffydd goes missing, Gladys searches for him, and runs into ‘Charlie’ Decharles. Charlie is a well-meaning but foolish aristocrat, who woke up one morning in a steam-cab to find the driver murdered, and a crime he is determined to solve ...

DESCRIPTION: British Intelligence operative Bella Butterfield has been dispatched to Tokyo for a very special purpose. Until recently, Japan seemed immune to the Islamic-inspired terror attacks that swept the world after 9/11. But the 2015 beheading of two Japanese aid workers in Syria changed everything. As the 2020 Tokyo Olympics approach, the race is on to establish a viable, outward-looking Japanese intelligence agency. Bella's brief is to ensure this spy service is fashioned in the image of MI6. But before discussions even commence, Japan receives disturbing intelligence about a home-grown terror plot from an unlikely source – China. Bella is thrown headlong into a complex, multinational espionage operation, forcing her to walk a tripwire of hidden agendas that test her professional and personal loyalties.

DESCRIPTION: A decent man doesn't leave a good wife and marriages don't fall apart without warning over breakfast between "One egg, or two?" and "Pass the sugar, please"... or so Stella Romney believes until, without any warning, her husband Daniel says he is leaving her and their two children. Meeting a stranger at the seashore where she goes to seek solace introduces her to a different perspective on life – and the possibility this new friendship can become something deeper. Free spirit Chris encourages Stella to access her inner strength and explore her potential. As her life opens up, Daniel's choice doesn't deliver the freedom he expected and his life is more complicated than ever. Stella must find it in her heart to set aside the pain his leaving caused and offer compassion and support to the father of her children. She can choose to stay mired in yesterday's regrets – or do what she can to create a brighter tomorrow for them all.

SPACE IN ACTION: AUGMENTED REALITY

An Augmented Reality Experience from Alternator Books®

RRP: $16.95 ea

Author: Rebecca E. Hirsch, Kevin Kurtz

Publisher: Lerner Publications | Release Date: 01/03/2020

Format: Paperback | Pages: 32 | Size: 17.15 x 22.86 cm

DESCRIPTION: It's like a pop-up book on your digital device!

Explore outer space through interactive augmented reality experiences! Discover what scientists have learned about planets, stars, black holes, and more, and learn about the cutting-edge technology that astronauts use. Space fans will be thrilled by true augmented reality features that give readers a close-up look at the cosmos.

Download the free Lerner AR app from your device's app store. As you read, look for the Lerner AR icon throughout the book. It means there is an augmented reality experience on that page! Use the app to scan the picture near the icon to access bonus augmented reality content related to that page. Watch a black hole eat a sun, see the moon's orbit, look around on Mars as if you're actually there. Each book contains 3-5 AR experiences based on real NASA models to explain planetary orbits, black holes, comets and asteroids, the solar system, space stations, and the machines and gear that astronauts use to explore the galaxy.
